

Employee # 16 - _____

FORM G

Blueberry Fields

ENTITLEMENT TO WORK (For a person who is not an Australian citizen and not a permanent resident)

We are required to make sure that our employees are entitled to work in Australia. To do this we will access the Australian Government Department of Immigration and Multicultural Affairs Online Entitlement Verification. This is a website operated by the Department of Immigration.

- We will access the website to determine whether you are entitled to work in Australia.
- We will obtain personal information about you including your work entitlements.
- We will keep a copy of your entitlements check for our records.
- We must tell you that if you are not entitled to be in Australia, the Commonwealth may use the information they obtain when we access their website to locate you.

To access the website we must first ask for your consent to do so. Please sign below if you consent to us accessing your personal information on the website and keeping a copy of your entitlements check for our records.

I hereby consent to Blueberry Fields accessing the Online Entitlement Verification Website conducted by the Australian Government Department of Immigration to obtain personal information about me and I consent to Blueberry Fields keeping a copy of my entitlements check for their records.
